

Deadwood - Class Diagram

Sage Cook - CSCI345 Spring 2022

action() is defined abstractly, to be implemented in child classes. It will be called by a player object during its turn if the user inputs that they'd like to take an action in the room they are currently in. This could vary from taking a role on a set to upgrading their rank at the casting office.

